

Labor and Delivery

The Carmen and John Thain Labor and Delivery Unit at Sloane Hospital for Women is located at:

Morgan Stanley Children's Hospital
3959 Broadway
New York, NY 10032
10th floor

The entrance is on the corner of 165th Street and Broadway, heading south on Broadway.

Valet parking is available.

If you wish to schedule a tour, please call 877-NYP-WELL (877-697-9355) or visit:

<http://www.nyp.org/womens>

Choose: Schedule a maternity tour

Select location: NYP/Columbia University Medical Center

One support person may attend, but please do not enroll the support person. Registration is required only for the expectant woman. Expectant mothers should attend 1-2 months before their due date. Please do not bring children.

If you do not schedule a tour, it is recommended that you take a practice drive to the hospital to familiarize yourself with the location prior to your delivery.
